Rod and Gun Club Installs New Prexy

Members of the Torrance Rod and Gun Club held their 10th annual installation dinner at the Pen & Quill Restaurant, Saturday night.

Officers for the incoming year were installed and sworn into office by Ernest Maloy, the organization's first president and charter member. Those installed were Ed Glines, president; Carl Stiles, vice president; Marcella Smith, treasurer; Janice Strong, recording secretary, and Jim Ream, corresponding secretary.

Trophies for the largest species of fish and game, taken during 1961, were presented to the winners by the master of ceremonies, Fred Bickar. A trophy was also given to the Torrance Lady Anglers by the Oceanside Lady Anglers for winning the derby held on August 16, 1961.

NATIONAL SUPPLY Rod and Gun's new president, Ross Woofter, and his wife were guests for the evening.

Many fishing, hunting, and shooting events are scheduled for the coming year. A trap shoot will be held Sunday at Rancho Angeles Trap Range at 10 a.m. between the Torrance Rod and Gun Club and American Standard Rod and Gun Club.

DURING THIS past week, Paul Smith received his 50 straight trap, being only the second one received in the club. He got 74 out of 75.

Meetings of the club are held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at McManis Park at Artesia Boulevard and Yukon Avenue. Anyone interested in fishing, hunting or shooting is invited to attend.

Andrews Most Honored Fall Athlete

All-American End Mike Andrews walked from the El Camino College Fall Awards Banquet Thursday heavily laden as the most-honored fall athlete.

A freshman, Andrews was presented trophies honoring him on his selection as the outstanding lineman and most inspirational football player of 1961.

Widely honored at the close of the football campaign, the 6-2, 177-pound flanker, received All-Metropolitan Conference and All-American recognition. Andrews, a tremendous all-around athlete, recently signed a $20,000 contract to play baseball for the Boston Red Sox.

ALTHOUGH out during the early part of the season with a leg injury, Fernandez boomed back and paced the harriers to one of the finest seasons in the squad's illustrious history.

THE OUTSTANDING offensive lineman award for football was presented to tackle Tom Fitzgerald, while Joe Prael was honored as outstanding defensive lineman.

John Torok, sensational quarterback at ECC in his freshman season, was given the outstanding offensive back honor. All-American honorable mention Jim Rlison, also in his initial year at El Camino, was presented the outstanding defensive back trophy.

LOU RIZZO, bone-crushing

Warrior fullback, was named the most improved football player of the year.
